

Review B: Subjects and Predicates

EXERCISE In each of the following sentences, draw one line under the complete subject and two lines under the complete predicate. Then, circle each simple subject and verb.

Example 1. Does Guido's little brother collect rocks?

1. The party for Victor is tomorrow.
2. The soundtrack of that movie features several jazz standards.
3. Every club in our school is building a float for the parade.
4. The huge mirror in the hall is a valuable antique.
5. Our entire family attended the commencement exercises.
6. In front of the garage lay three bicycles.
7. My younger brother sat in the back seat with the dogs.
8. Is this vacation plan the least expensive?
9. Our neighbor helped us with the clothesline.
10. Will the members of the committee be making the decisions?
11. Our team finally won its first game.
12. With the help of her teammates, the young woman limped off the soccer field.
13. Would any of you listen to this music by Igor Stravinsky?
14. The science teacher gave us an interesting assignment.
15. What a celebration our class had!
16. Does Mr. Wong give you cello lessons?
17. My English teacher gave me a copy of the book Little Women.
18. At the Japanese restaurant, both of us ordered tempura.
19. Neither of these answers is correct.
20. On opening night of the World Series, the ten-year-old girl beamed with excitement.