

Short Story Plot Summary

Directions: Using the below framework and your story plot notes, write the plot of the story in paragraph form. Every time you see BOLD/Highlighted words, write that on your paper and finish the sentence with your own words and information. Put your name, teacher, class, due date header at the top. Put a title (name of story). Double space. Do not write anything larger than 12-point font.

Your Name (First and Last)

Mrs. Chittaro

8th English – Class Period (A, B, H)

10 September 2018 (Date Due)

Summary of "Title in Quotation Marks"

(INDENT) In "(put name of story here – be sure to place it in quotation marks)" the author, (put the name of the author here), immediately gains our attention. We learn that the basic situation is (put the basic situation/exposition here). An internal conflict within the story occurs when (put an internal conflict here). An external conflict also occurs within the story when (put an external conflict here). There are many complications that lead to the climax. First, (put a complication here). Then, (put a complication here). Next, (put a complication here). Finally, (put a complication here). The climax occurs when (put the climax of the story here). The resolution occurs when (put the resolution of the story here).