

The Book Thief, Vocab Section 13-14

1. Sickle pg 307– an implement of for cutting gran, grass, consisting of a curved, hook-like blade mounted in a short handle
2. Abridged pg 308 – shortened
3. Suffice pg 309 – to be enough
4. Surly pg 314 – unfriendly, hostile
5. Adamant pg 316 – utterly unyielding in attitude or opinion in spite of all appeals, urgings
6. Paradox pg 316 – self-contradictory statement
7. Resurgence pg 318 – rising or tending to rise again
8. Serpentine pg 326 – to move or lie in a winding path or line
9. Antithesis pg 330 – a contrast or opposition between two things
10. Copiously pg 330 – in large quantities
11. Resolute pg 334 – determined
12. Liting pg 337 – to sing or play in a light, tripping, or rhythmic manner
13. Scouring pg 349 – searching for

The Book Thief, Vocab Section 15-16

1. reprieve-(353) to delay the pending punishment or sentence of (a condemned person)
2. competence-(356) able to furnish the necessities of life
3. glut-(360) a full supply
4. epitome-(360) typical features of a whole group
5. advisory-(360) having the power or duty to advise
6. nonplussed-(361) a state of utter confusion
7. gargantuan-(361) gigantic
8. formidable-(363) causing fear, apprehension, or dread
9. frothy-(365) foamy
10. insignia-(366) a badge or distinguishing mark
11. animosity-(368) a feeling of strong dislike
12. acquittal-(368) released
13. loathsome-(369) disgusting
14. infernal-(370) troublesome
15. recoiling-(372) to draw back
16. bulbous-(373) bulging

17. anvil-(373) smooth iron block made of steel
18. castigating-(374) to criticize
19. pulpy-(374) soft
20. stoic-(375) unmoved as a statue
21. feigning-(380) faking
22. regimented-(390) uniformed
23. foreboding-(390) especially evil
24. desolation-(391) loneliness
25. temerity-(392) rashness or reckless boldness
26. derision-(394) mockery
27. rue-(401) to feel sorrow over
28. vindication-(402) justification